

~ The Origins of Our SoulSong ~
Channeled WOW (Words Of Wisdom) from Source given into the hands of Lady Nenari, Princess of the Sea

There is a big difference between your REAL name of your soul and your earthly name in any one of the many lives lived. Our name given whence birthed into any given life is not our real name, it is our earthly name for that life, yet it is free from being who we are in energetic vibrational frequency essence as Soul.

From the time before time within the infiniteness of the Master Artist/God, this Source energy is energy, is vibration, is energy vibrating. This energy vibrating then became sound. The first sound of the universe which is the primordial sound of all creation is the OM or AUM. From that vibrating energy of all of creation, each soul that births forth from the Creator is thus given a vibratory signature so as to be recognised by its own soul song, its own vibratory resonance. Whence you hear and vibrate with your soul signature name, your soul song, it brings you back to the core essence of who you are as Source itself. It brings you back home.

This is a form of singing of your soul song through mantra is a way in which you experience a deep connection with your own heart and soul. And when the mantra of your soul signature name your soul song stops, your mind is then quiet. You can be completely immersed in the sound reverberating of your own soul, free from being any words to distract the mind, you are left with being within the stillness of the heart where the magic of who you really are is revealed to you within and the connection with all. When your soul song is sung to you of your soul signature name, the vibratory resonance of who you really are, anything that is within your being in this life and in all other lives multi~dimensionally that appears to be less than this or other than this, is then shifted back into this wholeness of who you are.

So for example, let us say you are dealing with a dis~ease that your soul chose for this life and that you soul also chose to heal in this life, the vibratory essence of vibrating with and hearing and singing your soul song will heal that dis~ease within you simply by you remembering who you are. For there is a big difference between your REAL name of your soul (your SoulSong, your Soul Signature name) and your earthly name within this life or within any one of the many lives lived. Our name given whence birthed into a life is free from being our real name, it is our earthly name for that life. That said, it is free from being whom we really are as a Soul. Our SoulSong is the vibratory essence of who we are as vibrational frequency through all of the infinite multi~dimensions. This is deepest essence of who you are.

~ It has been said that in some African tribes when a woman of the tribe knows she is pregnant, she goes to the jungle with other women, and together the women pray and meditate until they receive "The song" of the child. Their Soul Song. When a child is born, the community gets together and they sing the child's song. When the child begins his or her education, people get together and they sing his/her song. When they become an adult, they get together again and sing it. When it comes to your wedding, the person hears his/her song. Finally, when their soul is going from this world, family and friends approach and, like at his/her birth, sing their song to accompany them on the Sacred Path back home to Source.

There is another occasion when men sing the Soul Song as they have a social structure with an elementary criminal code. Their close community living makes harshness unnecessary. Once there was a visitor who was deeply impressed by the tribe's handling of antisocial, delinquent behaviours, which are exceedingly infrequent.

When a person acts irresponsibly, unjustly, commits a crime or aberrant social act, he/she is placed in the centre of the village, alone, unfettered and the people of the community form a circle around him/her. All work ceases. All gather around the accused individual and they sing "your song.", your SoulSong. In addition, each person of every age, begins to talk out loud to the accused. One at a time, each person tells all the good things the one in the centre ever did in his/her lifetime. Every incident, every experience that can be recalled with any detail and accuracy, is recounted. All positive attributes, good deeds, strengths, and kindnesses are recited carefully and at length. No one is permitted to fabricate, exaggerate or be facetious about accomplishments or positive aspects of the accused person.

The tribal ceremony often lasts several days, not ceasing until everyone is drained of every positive comment that can be mustered. At the end, the tribal circle is broken, a joyous celebration takes place, and the person is symbolically and literally welcomed back into the tribe. The tribe recognises that the correction for antisocial behaviour is free from being punishment, but is the love and memory of his/her true identity. When we recognise our own song, we are free from having any desire or need to harm or hurt anyone. Necessity for such ceremonies is rare!

Your friends and those who love you know "your song". And sing it to you when you forget it. Those who love you are free from being fooled by mistakes you have committed, or dark images you hold about yourself and show to others. They remember your beauty as you feel ugly, your total when you are broke, your innocence when you feel guilty and your purpose when you are confused
